HISTORY

“JEEVAN JYOTI” A School for the special children was inaugurated on 14th September, 1989 in the Coal Capital of India. It was felt that the special Children of the area needed special care. Keeping this in mind some dedicated ladies and social workers of Inner Wheel Club of Dhanbad launched this much needed project in the year 1989. It was a very small beginning with 6 children enrolling on the first day. The tiny bud which was sown with love & care has now blossomed into an institution of 110 Divyang Children in 29 years where a small team of doctors, therapist, and other professionals render their services on honorary basis. The school was taken over by Rotary club of Dhanbad in the year 2002. However the school is managed by a committee constituted by the club.

AIM AND OBJECT OF THE SCHOOL

(a) The main aim of the school is to serve as an impartial co-ordination of correlating body on communication disorders (Speech and hearing impaired, mentally retarded, autistic, cerebral palsy, deaf-blind and multiple disabilities) and other connected matters related to the communication disorders in close collaboration with National and International Program.

- (b) To effect a scientific exchange upon communication disorders by collecting and disseminating information through publications, correspondence, exhibitions, regional national and international courses, seminars, symposia, conferences, camps surveys etc. by staff efforts or otherwise.
- (c) To undertake appropriate projects to encourage and facilitate high level uniform practice by development of standards for nomenclature, curriculum design, devices, techniques and processes, research and development, treatment, education and training in the field of communication disorders.
- (d) To establish and maintain libraries information services and documentation centre related to hearing and mentally handicapped.
- (e) To organize job oriented vocational rehabilitation centre for the Speech and Hearing Impaired, Intellectually Impaired and other Children With Special needs(CWSN).
- (f) To establish, manage and control services and clinical and educational centres for deaf and dumb and mentally retarded in different parts of the country.
- (g) This school is in the process of developing a team of highly dedicated and service minded professionals with specialization and expertise in a wide range of fields like educational Audio-loop, vocational training and economic rehabilitation to fulfil the objective of the school.
- (h) Integration: - A few children are also attending ordinary school; receive special support from the centre. .
- (i) Material Development:- In order to develop and prepare teaching learning material like slides, special books, posters, pamphlets, leaflets, magazines and other publications.

UNITS OF JEEVAN JYOTI SCHOOL

1. Audiology:-

- f) Kitchen work for girls
- g) Carpentry work

The candles and artificial flowers bouquets and greeting cards made by the students are sold in the open market. The students who are involved in making these articles are given some money as an intensive.

The main aim of the school is to make the students self sufficient by guiding the students in selecting one of the arts according to their aptitude & train them to excel so that they can choose it as their profession.

5. Service Centre:-

Diagnostic and Therapeutic aspects of speech and Hearing Impaired are undertaken. The school works on the philosophy of no profit no loss and subsidized amount is charged from the cases depending upon their income.

6. School for the Hearing Impaired Children:-

The deaf or hard of hearing children need most careful professional, parental and social attention for their educational rehabilitation. The institute provides comprehensive services for the hearing handicapped like therapy, Auditory Training behavior therapy cognitive therapy special education parental counseling etc.

The aching of deaf has been a battle for method among the professional. One group emphasizes on the use of Manual or sign language as a mode of education and communication whereas the other group insists on the aural and oral method, which means the use of the residual hearing and then train them to speak.

The school follows the philosophy of teaching the hard of hearing to hear and to speak. This is done through the use of amplification, visual (speech reading) and proprioceptive (Touch and Movements) modes. Most modern equipments such as group hearing aid system, speech trainer Insect training and pre-school programmes are emphasized more at the school.

7. School for the Intellectually Impaired Children / Autistic Children:-

Most of the Intellectually Impaired Children / Autistic Children face problems in communication and daily living skills due to the impaired adaptive behaviors and sub average intelligence. Teaching of mentally deficient children are one of the most challenging take for the professionals since they cannot be trained or educated on the patterns of normal classes. Special class rooms and plans are required for fulfilling the individual needs, IQ and aptitude. The basic aim for training the hard of hearing and mentally handicapped in their integration to the normal society.
